Q1: What happens if I clear my active backlog before the company onboarding date?

A: Company eligibility is verified at the time of shortlisting/application.
If a company allows 0 active backlogs, you cannot apply even if you clear it later. If a company allows 1 active backlog on the condition of clearing before onboarding, official proof must be submitted to the Placement Cell.

Q2: Can I apply to a company if my branch is not explicitly listed in the notice?

A: No. Shortlisting filters strictly adhere to the eligible branches specified in the recruitment notice issued by the Training & Placement Cell.

Q3: Are online certifications accepted as proof of skills?

A: Certifications from recognized platforms (Coursera, NPTEL, edX) strengthen your resume but do not override CGPA or backlog eligibility rules.
